

Seminar: Data sharing, analytics and appropriate governance

Date: Tuesday 13th November 2018

Time: 5.00pm doors open for 5:30pm start, till 6:45pm for Networking,
With 7:00pm close.

Location: SAHMRI Auditorium, North Terrace Adelaide,
City West, next to the Royal Adelaide Hospital (RAH)

SA NT DataLink as the authorised Data Linkage facility for South Australia and the Northern Territory, are proudly partnering with the Australian Computer Society (ACS) to host 'Data sharing, analytics and appropriate governance' Seminar.

Peter Worthington-Eyre,
SA Government Chief Data Officer, will talk about the work of the SA
Government Office for Data Analytics.

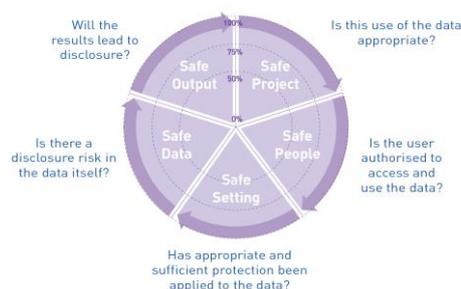

The SA Department for Premier and Cabinet (DPC) Office for Data Sharing, are responsible for leading the data sharing and analytics initiatives across government, supporting evidence based service design and using predictive analytics to inform policy development.

As the Chief Data Officer for the South Australian Government, Peter ensures that the value from the States vast data assets are unlocked and appropriately governed.

Chris Radbone, Associate Director SA NT DataLink, SA Chair of ACS, member ACS Data Sharing Taskforce, will present a report on the ACS's national work on 'Trust Preserving Data Sharing Frameworks'.

You are kindly invited register to attend, as guest of SA NT DataLink.

Please register by email by 5:00pm Monday 12th November to kyleann.badcock@unisa.edu.au

Please feel free to pass this invitation onto to any of your colleagues.

